PARTIES

6. Plaintiff HUGHEY JACKSON is a citizen of the United States, and at all relevant times was a resident of Brooklyn, New York.

7. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.

8. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK maintains the New York City Police Department, a duly authorized public authority and/or police department, authorized to perform all functions of a police department as per the applicable sections of the aforementioned municipal corporation, CITY OF NEW YORK.

9. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendants, RONNIE P. GUERRA, ERNESTO CRUZ, and JOHN and JANE DOES 1-10, were duly sworn police officers of said department and were acting under the supervision of said department and according to their official duties.

10. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State of New York and/or the City of New York.

11. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant CITY OF NEW

FACTS

12. On or about August 31, 2006, at approximately 2:50 p.m., plaintiff HUGHEY JACKSON was lawfully present near the Chase Bank located in the vicinity of Grand Concourse and Fordham Road in the Bronx.

13. At the aforesaid time and place, the defendants, members of the New York City Police Department, unlawfully and without reasonable suspicion or any just cause stopped and grabbed the plaintiff, threw plaintiff into a wall, and then forcibly slammed him to the ground. Plaintiff was thereafter struck on his back, legs and shoulders, and felt the officers forcefully twist his legs. The defendants proceeded to unlawfully handcuff the plaintiff in an excessively tight manner, and refused to loosen the cuffs despite plaintiff's many requests and complaints of pain. Mr. Jackson was taken against his will to an NYPD police precinct in the Bronx, where he was issued a bogus summons charging plaintiff with committing alleged Disorderly Conduct. The summons, which was issued by the defendants despite the lack of merit or any probable cause or grounds to believe that plaintiff had committed any offense, was issued to cover up the defendants' abuse of authority and acts of brutality. Notwithstanding, upon information and belief, the summons was dismissed and sealed on or around October 25, 2006, prior to plaintiff's first Court appearance on November 2, 2006.

14. All of the above occurred while other NYPD officers failed to intervene in the illegal conduct described herein.

15. All of the above occurred as a direct result of the unconstitutional policies, customs or practices of the City of New York.

16. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff HUGHEY JACKSON sustained, inter alia, physical injuries, emotional distress, embarrassment, and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the New York City Police Department included, but were not limited to a policy and practice of conducting excessive unlawful stops and searches of individuals of African American descent, and committing acts of brutality and then committing perjury and/or manufacturing evidence in an effort to convict such individuals.
